

Knarik Martirosyan, Dipl.-Psychologist

Bamberg, Germany

Armenia (originally)

Knarik Martirosyan is a psychologist, psychotherapist, hypnotherapist in her own private practice for psychotherapy and clinical hypnosis for adults, children and adolescents in Bamberg, Germany.

- Lectures on clinical hypnosis
- Hearing Officer of the Independent Commission on the Treatment of Child Sexual Abuse
- Foundation of child prevention courses against abuse
- Psychotherapy with children and adolescents with mental and behavioral problems
- Psychotherapy in the District Hospital Bayreuth, in forensic psychiatry and in the addiction field
- Planning and implementation of rehabilitation courses for alcohol and drug problems clients (TÜV Thüringen)
- Art Therapy and Psychodrama in Mental Health Foundation in Yerevan, Armenia

Study education

- Studies and graduation of Diploma Psychology (specialization in Behavior Therapy) at the University of Bamberg.
- Studies at Yerevan State University, Armenia, Bachelor's Degree in Psychology (depth psychology-oriented studies)

Qualifications

- Training in clinical hypnosis and hypnotherapy after M. Erickson
- Working with symbols, biography, identity, perception and feeling

- Couple therapy for mental illnesses
- MKT - Metacognitive Training
- NLP procedure
- Reviewer and moderator training
- Prevention of sexual violence on and under children and young people
- various medical trainings, in the field of trauma therapy
- ...

Publication

Knarik Martirosyan (2011) "The development of mathematical skills: Differences in children between the ages of three and four in non-verbal tasks for comprehending numerical skills in different numerical ranges"

www.medizinische-hypnotherapie.de